What Can I know for Sure?

Introduction

In light of our discussion about the statement by Paul of those who do the deeds of the flesh and the result: “those who do such deeds shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (Gal 5), what does that have to say about my eternal security and my assurance of salvation? Are these the same question?

In light of our discussion of Eternal rewards, what role do “good works” have in my eternal security or my eternal significance? Is it the same answer? (Eph 2:8-10, Gal 2:16)

- I. The Bible Teaches that I am Eternally Secure. Once Saved Always Saved!

Conclusion

Based on the Person, Plan, Power and Promise of God- I am secure in my salvation

- II. The Bible Teaches I can have assurance that I am saved
By My Works?

By His Word?

- III. The Bible Teaches that Eternal Security is Unconditional and Eternal Significance is Conditional. 2 Tim 2:11-12, Romans 8:17, Eph 2:8-10

Conclusion

I can have complete assurance that I am saved. (Assurance) and safe forever (Eternal Security)
because of what He did for me and promised me.

.... And God cannot lie!

“...In the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie promised long ago..” Titus 1:2
