

Joint Heirs
Fred Chay

What Child is This?

Isaiah 9:6

This is the Christmas season and so it is a time to consider the Christ of Christmas. The gospel nativity scene shows us the humanity of the little baby Jesus. The books of Hebrews and Colossians presents the Cosmic Christ exalted at the right hand of the Father. But seven centuries earlier we have another portrait and a prophecy of the Christ of Christmas as to His role in the lives of His people.

I. A Wonderful Counselor Who Understands the Complexities of Life

II. A Mighty God Who Deals with the Circumstances of Life

III. An Eternal Father Who Can Deal with the Changes of Life

IV. A Prince of Peace Who Can Transform Our Brokenness
and Make us Complete in this Life

Jesus is not just a prophet telling us how to find God. He is God who came to find us.

We have all that we need to handle the “race set before us”
if we call upon the name of the Lord.